Summary of the Interactive Coaching Process:

It is not a course or another boring Summit!
It is a “holding your hand and heart” process.

We go on a journey and unpack and deal with ... once and for all ... those things that are HOLDING YOU BACK.

LETS FACE IT, YOU HAVE MORE POTENTIAL THAN YOU ARE USING IN YOUR LIFE RIGHT NOW!
So, ... what is holding you back?

This very practical interactive process will guide you skillfully, to make some amazing discoveries. Dr Bill Price will masterfully coach you to visit the spaces and places in your life to work through, without fear or anxiety.

Just like, when you build a house, you will investigate the foundation.
Who am I in My Essence?

- Because, if this is not fixed and aligned, everything you build into your life will eventually fall over.

It is going to be thorough ... week-by-week ... insightful coaching and you will feel like he is speaking just with you!

We will visit the 10 critical areas for life success over 10 weeks.
We will find out exactly what is holding you back in each one.
Things that you have woven into your life,
that you believe to be true but that are not!

We will visit.
We will think together.
We will encourage together.
We will create a new future together.
We will guide you toward creating a focused and well-lived life and lifestyle.

You will experience inner shifts and gaps that will be closed.

The walls of your life will be re-built, and you will become a very secure, strong, fulfilled and satisfied person - you will become whole.

Isaiah wrote: “MY people will be a satisfied people.”

You want to be there ... right?

Each week you will be coached online via live video presentation, and then it will be followed up with a mid-week Biblical meditation to help you to internalise the information that you heard.

You will become, Fully FREE, Fully Aware, Fully Alive and Fully ME!

- ✓ In yourself ...
- ✓ Developing powerful actions and habits
- ✓ With yourself
- ✓ With your relationship with God
- ✓ With your well-being
- ✓ With your spirituality
- ✓ With your well-designed future
- ✓ Creating your future-focused life-picture, drawing you towards it from your inner being!

You can't be the same again.
You know you are longing, deep in your gut and soul, to be who you were born to become.

Here is the opportunity and it will only knock twice ...

The first three sessions are absolutely FREE!

Then, ... if you have experienced value in the process, because you also worked through every practical personal investment assignment, you will be invited to register for the remaining ten (10) sessions of the course, for less than a third of the price of a movie ticket per session!

YES! YES! YES!
